

THE GUITAR CLUB CREED

We believe that playing guitar is journey.

We play because it's who we are and what we were meant to do. If we stopped playing, a part of us would die. We will practice hard and struggle to become the best players we can be. We will not compare our playing to another. We will develop our talents and gifts to the best of our ability. We will help others along the way.

We are not alone on this journey. We are part of a world-wide community. Something bigger than ourselves. We are all learning guitarists. And no matter what level of success we achieve, there is always more. We will humble ourselves and ask for help when needed. And we will take time to help others when called upon to do so.

Regardless of our talent, styles and skills, we are all musicians. Different, yet in many ways the same. We will progress a little every day. We won't fall behind. We will resist the urge to quit. We will ignore the dogs that bark at us along the way. We will silence that voice of doubt inside our mind. We will continue, fight and win. We play because it's what we do. It's who we are.

We are guitarists.
