Here's What JV Partners Have To Say About Dan Denley...

"I have worked with Dan for approximately 5 years. My first encounter with him was as a guitarist who happened to own and run a website that sold guitar lessons. No big deal I thought. Just a guy trying to make a living like dozens of other guys... but I was wrong.

The "other guys" were guitarists trying to make a few extra bucks from their websites. Dan was a true internet marketer that just also happened to be a guitarist-- a big difference.

If you're considering partnering with Dan in some way to market a product for you, he's an excellent choice. From affiliate programs, to PPC, to video, to search engine rankings, and product launches -- he knows the ropes. I am confident he'll come through for you. He has my unqualified recommendation.

Trust me, I know. I have worked for a Fortune 100 company in sales and marketing, for a venture-capital funded start-up companies and now as an entrepreneur with my own e-commerce properties."

James Todd
VideoSurgeon.net

*"I have watched Dan Denley up close and personal for 3 years now. Dan knows his stuff and his business has grown leaps and bounds. Not only is Dan a great marketer, I think he's better than most of the gurus who only sell Internet Marketing stuff.

He's a great guy to do business with. I have personally worked with and seen him put together 6 figure launches in a niche market and he has put A LOT of cash in my pocket both as an affiliate of mine and when I am his affiliate.

Simply put, he is the king of our guitar lesson niche.

So when Dan said he was teaching internet marketing, I was one of the first to signup. (Of course, I had been spying on him for years... in awe I might add). If you're considering a JV, Dan's your man."

Andrew Koblick
Guitar5Day.com

"Dan Denley is one of the top cats in the Internet guitar market. He was able to send tens of thousands of visitors to one of our websites within days. Dan's been in the game for years, he knows what works, and he's always on the bleeding edge of no-nonsense marketing tactics."
